Case #20-11

06/23/2020

Investigative Process:

On 06/22/2020 at approximately 12:49 PM EST, I received a telephone call from Chief Sergeant of Arms Michael Ferland regarding a motorcycle accident at the Michigan State Capitol.

- Chief Ferland requested I remotely observe the corner of Michigan and Capitol on Friday June 19, 2020 around 10:17 PM EST via a Michigan Senate issued laptop.

On 06/22/2020 at approximately 1:00 PM EST, I reviewed video surveillance from the Boji – Exterior West PTZ (02) camera.

I immediately created a bookmark in the Genetec Security Desk Monitoring system to document the incident for future review.

- On 06/22/2020 at approximately 10:17:08 PM EST, headlights from two motorcycles traveling south on Capitol Avenue are observed.
- On 06/22/2020 at approximately 10:17:14 PM EST, an unknown white female runs out from the barricades in front of the Capitol and stands in the traffic lane located at Capitol Avenue and Michigan Avenue.
- On 06/22/2020 at approximately 10:17:22 PM EST, an unknown driver of motorcycle hits unknown female and continues south on Capitol Avenue.
- I also protected the video from deletion from the system.

On 06/23/2020 at approximately 9:29 AM EST, copies of the video from Boji – Exterior West PTZ (02) were transferred to Universal Serial Bus (USB) thumb drives for the Michigan State Police and the Lansing Police Department.

For any additional questions please feel free to contact me directly via email at cconger@senate.michigan.gov or by phone at 571-373-5682.

- A. Detective Shawn Martinez, hereafter Affiant, has been a police officer for 22 years and is currently employed by the Lansing Police Department. Affiant is assigned to the investigations division and is assigned to investigate crimes occurring in the City of Lansing, County of Ingham, State of Michigan.

- B. Affiant has been assigned to investigate a crime of Felonious Assault that occurred on 6/19/2020 at S Capitol Ave and W Michigan Ave, City of Lansing, County of Ingham, State of Michigan. Complaint number 205196115 has been assigned to this investigation. Affiant states that as a result of her investigation she has learned the following:
1. On 6/19/2020 at about 2217 hours the Lansing Police Department was dispatched to S Capitol Ave and W Michigan Ave for a Hit and Run Personal Injury Accident. A black motorcycle hit a pedestrian and left the area.
 2. Upon arriving officers learned the following:
 - a. The victim, Emily Dievendorf, stated she was at a mural painting event at the Capital Building. Dievendorf stated she helped put together the event and was helping to identify people who were harassing the demonstrators. Dievendorf stated that a big black Harley Davidson had been harassing the demonstrators and made it known he was carrying a firearm on his hip. Dievendorf stated she was trying to take photographs of the license plates of the people harassing the demonstrators.
 - b. Dievendorf stated she heard a motorcycle driving down S Capitol. Dievendorf stated she was adamant that this motorcycle was the same motorcycle that harassed the demonstrators earlier. Dievendorf stated she stepped in the roadway to take a photograph of the license plate. Dievendorf stated she thought the motorcycle would slow down and move over.
 - c. Dievendorf stated the motorcycle did not move over and did not slow down. Dievendorf stated the motorcycle mirrored her movements in the roadway and intentionally hit her with the motorcycle. Dievendorf stated the motorcycle hit her and she sustained injuries.
 - d. Dievendorf stated the motorcycle swerved to hit her. Dievendorf stated she felt in fear for her life and tried to get out of the way but she had nowhere to go.
 - e. Dievendorf was taken to Sparrow via LFD. Dievendorf was treated for minor injuries and was released.
 - f. According to witnesses at the event the motorcycle intentionally hit Dievendorf.
 - g. According to witnesses statements the motorcycle was driving anywhere from 25-35 mph.
 - h. According to witnesses the area was lit by street lights.
 - i. According to witnesses the thing that was heard by the motorcycle was "get out of the road bitch."
 - j. The area on Capitol and Michigan was coned off by traffic cones and one wood barricade. No additional lighting was provided. The incident occurred at 2217 hours.
 - k. The driver of the motorcycle was identified as Jeffrey Thomas Bush. Bush came forward to LPD when he saw his photograph on Facebook.
 3. The driver of the motorcycle was identified as Jeffrey Thomas Bush:
 - a. Bush stated he had a passenger on his motorcycle. Bush stated his friend was on a motorcycle. Bush stated they were driving South on Capitol. Bush stated 2 out of the 3 lanes were blocked off with cones. Bush stated he and his friend were driving next to each other in the open lane.
 - b. Bush stated as they drove South on Capitol a female jumped out in front of him. Bush stated he tried to steer out of the way of the female but the female mirrored his movements. Bush stated he could not avoid the female and hit the female with his motorcycle.

- c. Bush stated he did not stop after hitting the female because he felt he would get assaulted by the demonstrators. Bush stated he drove home and did not know what to do. Bush stated he would call the police on Monday but saw photographs of him all over Facebook. Bush stated he called LPD to identify who he was and provide a statement.
 - d. Bush stated he did not intentionally hit the female. Bush stated he felt the female wanted to get hit or wanted him to dump his motorcycle.
4. Sprint carrier search warrant request for Jeffrey Bush:
- a. Jeffrey Bush confirmed (517)712-9402 was his cell phone number. I have contacted Bush several times at (517)712-9402.
 - b. Bush stated he has not been in the Lansing downtown area in 6-8 months. Bush stated he was not downtown during the week of 6/15/2020 to 6/19/2020. Bush stated he was not downtown prior to the incident circling the block making racist remarks or harassing the demonstrators.
 - c. Dievondorf stated she is adamant Bush was the same person driving around the block making racist remarks and harassing the demonstrators.
5. The question has been raised if this incident was related to a hate crime and if Bush was the same person who was making racist remarks and harassing the demonstrators. Was Dievondorf intentionally hit by Bush due to her being related to a BLM event. Even though at the time of the incident no racial slurs or gestures were made Dievondorf believed that this was the same person who had drove by on 2 previous occasions yelling racial slurs and gestures. Historical call detail records, historical text detail records, IP data records, all with cell tower and sector data including latitude/longitude could provide evidence to determine if Bush was involved in the harassing of the demonstrators or not, whether this is a hate crime or not and to as evidence of a felonious assault.

- C. Based on affiant's training and experience, it is known that mobile communication devices are used to plan, commit, and conceal criminal activity and evidence. Therefore, data obtained from mobile communication devices and records created by these devices can assist law enforcement in establishing the involvement of a possible suspect or suspects.
- D. Records created by mobile communication devices can also assist law enforcement in establishing communication activity/behavior, patterns, anomalies, patterns of life and often the identity of the device user. This is most effectively accomplished by reviewing a larger segment of records ranging prior and after the incident under investigation if possible.
- E. The aforementioned information combined with affiant's training and experience cause her to believe the execution of this search warrant will assist with the furtherance of this criminal investigation.

This affidavit consists of 3 pages.

As used by the Cellebrite, system bootloaders are small pieces of code that are placed on the phones RAM by the UFED. The device begins running the bootloader but does not continue its regular boot procedure to the operating system. The bootloaders then execute a "read only" function that extracts the evidence from the phone.

BOOTLOADER:

LOGICAL: Extracts user data from mobile device (SMS, call logs, pictures, contacts, videos, audio, certain application data and more)
FILE SYSTEM: Extracts the file system of the device, user data, mobile application data, and possibly hidden files (protected files)
PHYSICAL EXTRACTION: Extracts a bit by bit binary image of the devices flash memory and is able to obtain unallocated space.

EXTRACTION TYPES:

The examination of the phone was conducted using Cellebrite UFED 4PC (v. 7.34.1.23) and Cellebrite Physical/Logical Analyzer (v. 7.35.1.15). The Cellebrite UFED extracts vital data such as phonebook, pictures, videos, text messages, Call History, ESN and IMEI information from 1600+ models of handsets sold worldwide. The Forensic Analyst can subsequently analyze the contents of the cellular phone including stored numbers and text messages. The UFED Physical Analyzer is one of the most advanced analysis, decoding, and reporting applications in the mobile forensic industry. It includes malware detection, enhanced decoding and reporting functions, project analytics, timeline graph, exporting data capabilities and much more. I am currently trained and certified in the use of the Cellebrite system. The Cellebrite UFED and Physical analyzer used are licensed to the Lansing Police Department.

DATA ACQUISITION AND FORENSIC ANALYSIS EXAMINATION:

I performed a data acquisition and forensic analysis examination of a cellular phone at the request of Detective Shawn Martinez regarding evidence pertaining to a felonious assault investigation. The phone was searched under the authority of consent.

PHONE INFORMATION:

Samsung SM-G930V Galaxy S7 IMEI:353425083909717

DATA EXTRACTION: Samsung

The phone was powered on and unlocked upon receipt of the device. The following settings were made to the phone in order to allow data transfer:

"Settings" > "Developer Options" > Enable "stay awake" mode and "USB debugging", disable "verify apps"

When the phone was connected to the UFED the phone prompted to allow USB debugging, "always allow from this computer" was selected.

Logical and file system extractions were performed.

REPORTING:

The data from the extraction was analyzed through the physical analyzer. A PDF report of the extraction was created and copied to a disc. The report and phone were turned over to Detective Shawn Martinez.

Hey, all. I am looking for help identifying these two. They mowed me over when I was out making sure "Black Lives Matter" was getting painted on Capitol Ave. in front of the Michigan Capitol Building on Friday night. They are friends with the driver alone on his bike in the other photo. (Hey, that's me landing on the ground.)

belovedcommunityfund/index.html

not welcome. The harassers are visibly armed. Some are so bold that they have circled over and over in convertibles with the top down. How completely sure of your power in society must you have to be to do that? They drive fast enough that it is hard to get their plates.

Friday, we had enough of his circling. I was clearly in view and ready to get plates. He had plenty of time to slow down and I think we always have the choice to not pick up speed and aim our vehicle at another human.

I often say that I am not one to put people into categories of good or bad. I have been working in social justice and civil rights for a long time and it is "hearts and minds work." It is a place where you "meet people where they are" and fill in the blanks. It allows for evolution if not for continued harm. On Friday I did what many people in civil rights have done throughout history, I stood. I let somebody who was being harmful see me. From a distance and as he approached from far away. I have worked on gruesome hate crimes. I know folk dehumanize. Even I didn't expect him to speed up. I always surprise myself when I assume more of people.

I know he saw me because I heard somebody say that after he had already sped up and gotten too close it was then that he said, "Get the fuck out of the road."

So, yes, I do want to find him, but not just him. He is just one of many. And I just happened to be there. I was also just one of many. I was symbolic of so many he wants gone. And that's how bias incidents work. Anybody Black or Brown or believing in the value of Black and Brown Lives could have been in his path and they would have been as insignificant. Nonentities.

And that is white supremacy in a nutshell. The ability to, in a split second, decide somebody's life doesn't matter as much as yours. To feel they don't matter at all. That the hierarchy is THAT clear.

Would the night have been even more dangerous if the group had been all BIPOC?
Absofuckinglutely. I am most grateful that the artist who planned the beautiful piece did not end up harmed as a result of us asking her to help and putting her in harm's way.

Allies need to show up ANYWAY. And without need for thanks. And without anyone working hard to convince us. And without us making up our own agendas. And without our egos getting hurt when we are asked to be patient, or open when we are asked to consider that what we have learned may be wrong. We need to start over knowing it is a risk for us now but it has been for those we are serving from the beginning. It's going to bruise.

Let's find this motorcyclist and then expose a lot

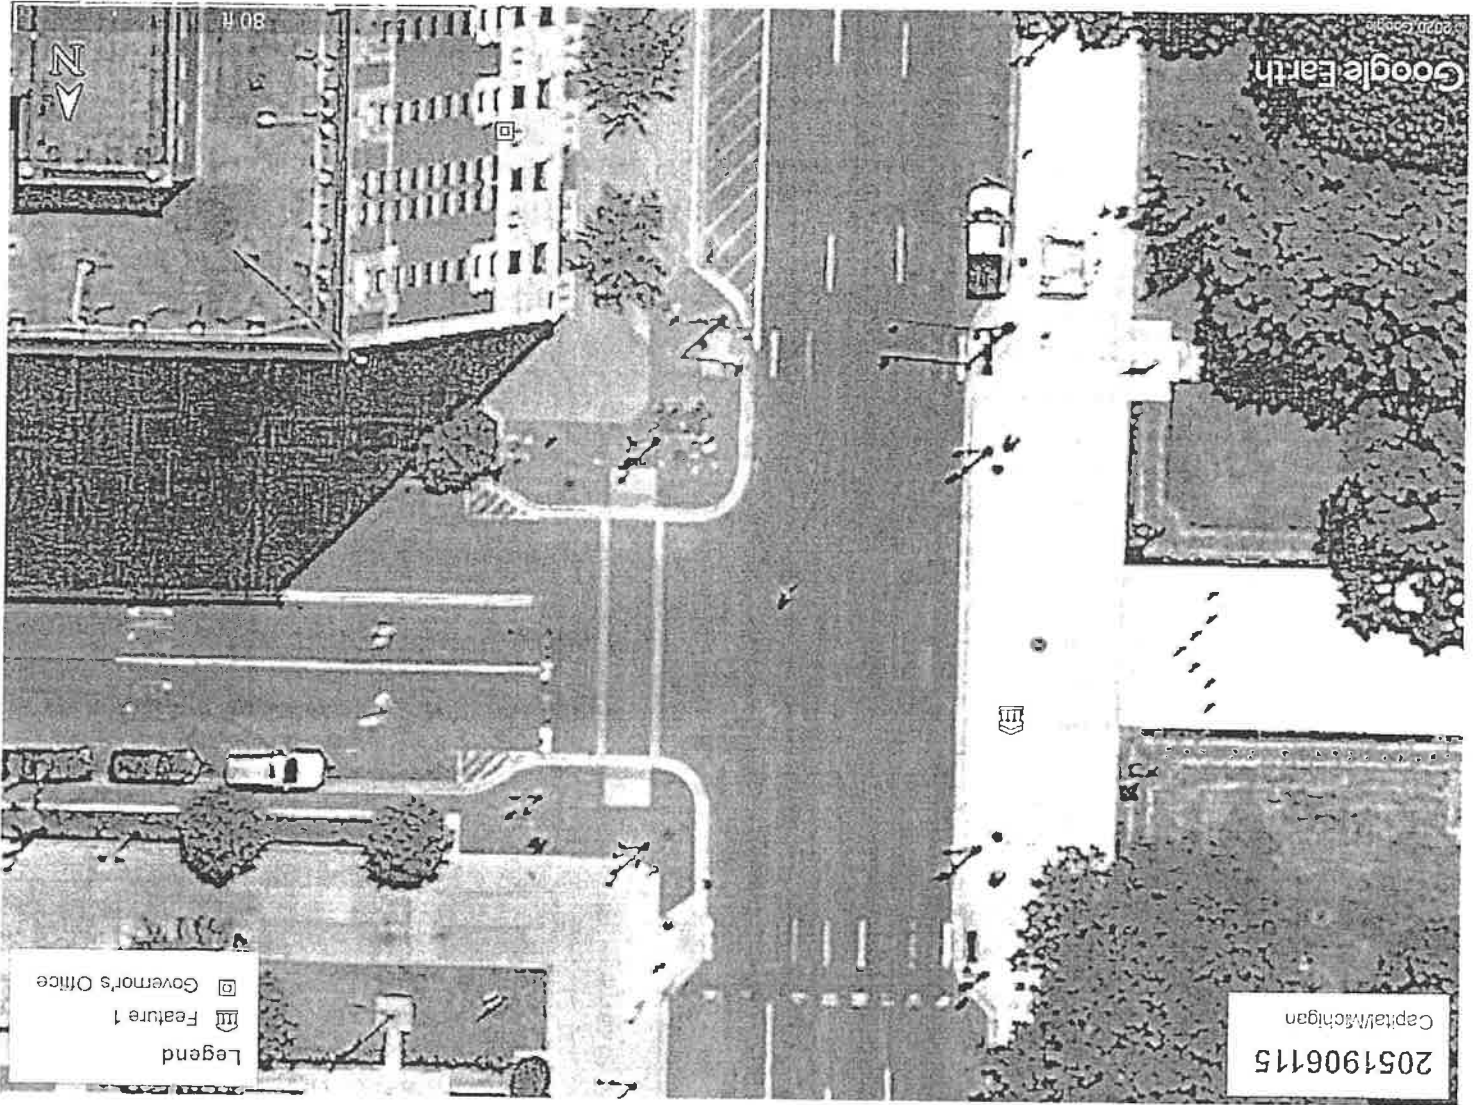

Let's find the motorcyclist and then expose a lot more

And you know what? The above all stayed. They finished painting regardless. So love some open boom.

MEASUREMENTS:

On 6/26/20 at approximately 0800 hours Det. Martinez contacted me as an accident reconstructionist to obtain some measurements and information from a personal injury crash she is investigating. I reviewed the video provided by the Romney Building. I then went to the area of Capital and Michigan and obtained the several measurements.

VIDEO:

The Romney video shows an overhead view of the intersection of Capital and Michigan. The video is zoomed into an area of the roadway that was being painted with the saying "black lives matter". The west lane is closed at the intersection with barricades and cones. There are several people inside the coned off area. The video shows a pedestrian exit the coned area and stand in the roadway facing north. The pedestrian stands in the middle travel lane as two motorcyclist approach. The pedestrian side steps both left and right in the roadway with her arms extended outwards until she is struck by one of the motorcycles. The pedestrian is knocked to the road and the motorcycles continue south out of the sight of the video. The area was lit by overhead lighting and it was dark outside.

The intersection of Capital and Michigan normally has three southbound lanes, one way, with an additional left turn lane north of the intersection. There are parallel parking spots on both sides of the road both north and south of the intersection. The area in front of the capital has extended curbs that take up the portion of the parking areas. Michigan does not continue west of Capital making it a "T" intersection. The intersection is controlled by traffic lights and has marked controlled crosswalks. The area has overhead street lighting and is posted 25 miles per hour.

MEASUREMENTS:

1. 45' 7" = west curb to east curb on the south side of northern most crosswalk on Capital.
2. 28' 7" = west curb to the area between the ninth and tenth crosswalk dash (west to east) of the south side of the northern most crosswalk on Capital. This was the area the motorcycle was seen on video to be traveling southbound and entering the intersection.
3. 52' = south side of the northern crosswalk on Capital to the base of the "V" on black lives matter. This was the area the pedestrian was standing when struck by the motorcycle.
4. 97' 6" = distance between north and south crosswalks. South side of northern crosswalk to the north side of southern crosswalk.
5. 32' 2" = west curb to the area between the ninth and tenth dash marks (west to east) on the southern crosswalk on Capital. This is the area the motorcycle left after the collision.
6. 39' 6" = distance between west and east curb of the southern crosswalk on Capital.
7. 16' 3" = west curb, southern end, to the east baseline of letters on the road.
8. 17' 5" = west curb, northern end, to the east baseline of the letters on the road.

See corresponding diagram. Not to scale. The picture was the most recent Google Earth photo, taken on 7/7/18.

I watched the video provided by the Romney building. I measured the time it took the motorcycle to travel from the southern edge of the northern crosswalk on Capital to the northern edge of the southern crosswalk. I measured this five times and obtained an average time of 2.84 seconds (2.91, 2.96, 2.85, 2.77, 2.75). The distance between the crosswalks is 97.5'. The time, 2.84 seconds, it took the motorcycle to travel the 97.5' puts the motorcycle traveling 23.4 miles per hour (34.33 fps).

With the motorcycle traveling 23.4 miles per hour plus a perception and reaction time the motorcycle would have needed 75.81' (24.33' to stop traveling 23.4 miles per hour plus 51.48' for perception and reaction time of 1.5 seconds, the standard perception reaction time for an alert attentive driver) to stop. This would have taken 2.92 seconds.

I also measured the time the pedestrian entered the travel lane from the same video. I took five measurements (6.22, 6.09, 6.23, 6.10, 6.10) and it averaged to 6.14 seconds that the pedestrian was in the motorcycles travel lane prior to impact.

CONCLUSION:

Based on the above measurements I believe the motorcyclist had time to perceive, react and stop his motorcycle prior to the collision with the pedestrian. Another motorcycle was traveling alongside/behind the colliding motorcycle so evasive maneuvers, such as swerve to avoid the pedestrian would not have been feasible. The video does show the motorcycle slightly swerving to the left just prior to and after the collision. I also believe the pedestrian had ample time to avoid the collision and/or utilize the crosswalks and barricaded area provided.

ACCUSED STATEMENT: Jeffrey Thomas Bush

Upon my arrival, I made contact with Jeffrey. On Friday June 19, 2020 at approximately 2000 hours, Jeffrey and his friend Gerald were riding separate motorcycles to pick up his friend Jessica who lives off of Seymour street. Jeffrey stated he asked Jessica prior to leaving her residence if there were any protests going on downtown tonight. Jeffrey told me Jessica said there were not any protests today. Jeffrey, Jessica and Gerald headed downtown to travel back to south Lansing. Jeffrey said he noticed several traffic cones and a barrier as they were heading South on N. Capitol Avenue. Jeffrey saw several people outside near the traffic cones. Jeffrey stated he saw a female approaching the roadway on Capitol Avenue. Jeffrey slowed down to swerve in his lane to the right in an attempt to not hit the female or Gerald, who was riding beside him to his left. When Jeffrey saw the female step further into the roadway he swerved to the left. Jeffrey stated he saw the female step a different direction in the roadway so he swerved to the right to avoid hitting her and the traffic cones on the other side. Jeffrey stated he felt his motorcycle clip the female. Jeffrey stated his right mirror struck the female in the area of her arm. Jeffrey stated he did not stop or pull over because he feared that they would be assaulted. Jeffrey stated he didn't call to report the accident because he wasn't sure what to do. Jeffrey denied being intoxicated at the time of the accident. Jeffrey called 911 today because a friend of his sent him a text saying pictures of him driving his motorcycle downtown were on a Facebook page. Jeffrey stated he called because he now realized someone was injured. Jeffrey stated he was not carrying a firearm Friday night.

MRI, KNEE, W/O CONTRAST.

Right knee: there are deep bruises, but no other abnormalities. I think it's just a matter of giving it more time to heal, being gentle with the knees for now, and icing the heck out of it

MRI, KNEE, W/O CONTRAST.

Left knee- also no major injuries identified, but deep bruising of the bone. There is a note that they can't 100% rule out a small fracture of the patella. If there is one it is small and not displaced. So in addition to rest and ice, I recommend a knee brace for the next few weeks (wear if you'll be on your feet, take off while resting and sleeping)

Technique: Axial, sagittal, and coronal proton density. Sagittal and coronal fat-suppressed T2. Coronal T1.

Findings:

Marrow:

- Moderate range bone marrow edema centered within the medial patella, in part adjacent to medial patellofemoral retinacular/ligament complex attachment. - Patellofemoral alignment: Within normal limits.
- Quadriceps tendon: Intact.
- Patellar tendon: Intact.
- Medial patellofemoral retinaculum/medial patellofemoral ligament: Intact.
- Lateral retinaculum: Intact.
- Plicae: Mild nonspecific thickening of medial patellar plical tissue.
- Other: No prepatellar or pretibial bursal fluid collection.

Popliteal Fossa:

- Tibial nerve: Intact.
- Peroneal nerve(s): Intact.
- Saphenous nerve: Intact.
- Vasculature: Unremarkable.
- Myotendinous structures: Intact.
- Baker's cyst: None.
- Other findings: None.

- Anterior Cruciate Ligament: Intact.
- Posterior Cruciate Ligament: Intact.

Medial Collateral Ligament / Medial Stabilizers:

- Superficial medial collateral ligament: Intact.
- Deep medial collateral ligament: Intact.
- Posterior oblique ligament: Intact.

Posterolateral Corner / Lateral Stabilizers:

- Fibular Collateral Ligament: Intact.
- Popliteus Tendon: Intact.
- Popliteofibular Ligament: Intact.

- IT Band: Intact.

Menisci:

- Medial Meniscus: No tear identified.
- Lateral Meniscus: No tear identified.

Articular Cartilage:

- Lateral Compartment: Mostly some chondral softening and indistinct fibrillation/fissures along a between 15-20 mm greatest dimension segment of the mid to inner posterolateral tibial plateau. Small indistinct associated partial thickness cartilage defect in this region measuring about 5 mm. No subchondral signal abnormalities.
- Medial Compartment: 3 mm greatest dimension size range high-grade partial-thickness cartilage defect along a portion of the weightbearing medial femoral condyle, superimposed upon a segment of chondral softening and indistinct fibrillation and fissures along at least 10 mm greatest dimension segment of mid to inner weightbearing medial femoral condyle, without subchondral signal abnormalities. Mostly scattered early chondrosis elsewhere.
- Patellofemoral Compartment: Cartilage fissures and perhaps small shallow partial-thickness defect along a slightly less than 10 mm transverse dimension segment of the medial patella. Mostly some chondral softening and indistinct fibrillation/fissures elsewhere.
